
Highlights of the Egan Family at Christmas in 2013

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.”

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

God is good – All the time!

This year has been another fantastic year! Our family portrait was a gift from the kids, so we put on our white shirts and took a few shots until we got one we liked.

Peg is still on the School Board for District 45 and is also serving as a Deaconess at church. She enjoys watching the boys twice a week.

Mike is still working at Allstate and on the Board of Camp Kaskitowa as well as the treasurer. He is also on the Elder Board at church again this year. He led a “Walk through the Bible” class at church that went from Sept. 2012 to Sept. 2013 and covered both the old and new testament in chronological order.

Mike Jr. and his wife Becky celebrated the arrival of their new baby boy (Thomas Edward) on January 3rd 2013. He is just about to turn one year old, so the newborn picture is quite a difference from the little guy who is about to start walking and enjoyed sitting on a horse! They are living in Carol Stream, which is just down the road from our house. In fact, there is a bicycle trail (The Great Western Trail) which goes pretty much right past our house and right past their house. It’s only a 9 mile ride. Mike III is now 2 ½ years old, and enjoying being a big brother to Tommy.

Peggy is now old enough to make her own decisions, like deciding to jump out of an airplane at 14,000 feet! Here she is getting buckled-in for the jump. She is still teaching kindergarten in Arlington Heights and she is attending Wheaton Bible Church while living in Carol Stream.

Mary is now 15 and a sophomore at Willowbrook High School. One of the classes she is enjoying is “Classical Guitar” She enjoys playing songs for us and is really good at it. She is also affectionately known as auntie “Mimi”. Mary is quite an accomplished artist, and doing very well in school. She will be starting Drivers Education in the spring. Here she is practicing! She also received the “Outstanding Freshman” award and was invited to join the Tri-M Music society.

I hope that you and your family are doing well during this Christmas Season.
Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
